

GOLD COAST MALIBU CLUB

Newsletter 07
July 2008

Next Club Round: The next club round will be on Sunday the 20th of July. Meeting at the Kirra Pizza Hut at 6:30 am QLD time. There will be the usual suspects of the 9 Foot Open, Old Mal and the new Retro Division.

May Round Wrap:

May was a cracker!

There was no May round if you lot can cast your mind back that far. There was absolutely no surf what so ever, so it was call off. Thank you to the small band of merry men and women that turned up knowing that there was no surf. You can really tell who's well loved at home. But never the less we had about 10 lost and lonely souls turn up to choo the fat at Kirra while the wind froze the balls off a brass monkey. I think these poor reprobates should be rewarded with points for turning up on time ready to go. (I need to build my tally any way possible)

June Round Wrap:

June was a cracker!

Yes I know you've heard it all before but this time I tell no lies. The surf at Kirra was good, although a little quick at times it was still awesome fun to have waves to surf in. The guys in the Retro Division were a sight to behold in the fast breaking waves of the once renowned Kirra Point and the Open were certainly not going to be out done. There was metal to the metal all the way down the line which led to some fantastic stacks in an effort to get a barrel or the cutty at pace. The only down side was that the sweep sometimes sorted the men out from the boys with me and my lack of fitness being firmly placed in the latter group. Even though I am not as fit as I use to be I don't think I would be alone in this 'the older I get the better I was group'. It was smiles all round and to top it off Mike had been busy ransacking nana's cookbook to pull out an old favorite brazed sausages to warm up everyone's cockles.

OTHER NEWS:

A meeting was called at the start off July to discuss the future of the Malfunction and the proposal put forward by Island Style Promotions. Unfortunately I was unable to attend due to work commitments so if like me you too were not able to attend I would suggest getting down to this month's comp for the debriefing from the meeting.

Congratulations to Mork (Brett), Mindy, Riley and Cooper on the arrival of their brand new baby sister.

Teams Challenge in the first weekend of August stay posted as soon as I know you'll know (apparently we are hosting this)...

For those of you who are interested the Crescent Head National Old Mal Titles entries are out please see our fearless leader Jacko for details

The Last Word:

It's been a bit quite on the surfing front this month or at least it has been for me, so if you have any news which you would like to add, like the goings on at a recent comp just drop me a line. Believe me it doesn't even need to be the truth!
