

GOLD COAST MALIBU CLUB

Newsletter 4
April 2010

Next Club Round: This Sunday the 18th of April 2010.
We will meet as usual in the Greenmount carpark opposite the Coolangatta McDonald's at 6:30 in the morning, raring and ready to go, back into the swing of competitive club rounds after the 'social round' last month before the Malfunction

NEWS FROM LAST ROUND:

Sadly, last round was a social round due many of our member's being members of the Tweed Coast Old Mal Club and they were on their club trip away, with the rest of Southeast QLD, to the secret spot every man and his flame'in dog seems to know about. So long story short I have no story from last month to wet your whistle with.

OTHER NEWS:

The Malfunction has been run and won for 2010 with Harley Ingleby and Chelsea Williams taking out the Blue Ribbon Events. Not to be left out some our very own club member's did quite well as well. Neville Smith (over 60's) and Matt Alderidge (retro) both took out their divisions and a once long time member Lisa Nicholson won the women's. Further to this other member's did personal bests or made the semi's and final's but did not figure in the medals, so well done to everyone who entered. Sadly the website is down at the moment with the results of the Malfunction so I'm sure Sean will give us a run down as soon as he's able.

DON'T FORGET we'll be reliving the 20's and 30' with our club's DANCE NIGHT
Saturday 15th May Club DANCE NIGHT

Let Jacko know if you can't come or if you can come and with how many of your luckless friends, (as it is open to friends and family not just members).

Dancing starts at 7:30pm at the Kirra Sports Club

Steve tells me that the Sports Club also does dinners starting at $10.00 for anyone who might be interested.

So we'll see all you cool cats there! P.s. if you are not there I will come around and pull your arm off and beat you with it!!!

Don't forget to pick up your club rashies from Jacko if you had returned them for repairs.

The Last Word:

Don't know if I'll be there this Sunday due to me being pretty crook, I've had the dreaded lergy for almost 6weeks now, the doctor must be concerned because they want to see me all the time, I don't think it has anything to do with them getting another opportunity to bill me?

Any hows, I will do my best to keep my chin up and to drag my sad decaying body down the beach on Sunday so you guys better be there otherwise I will mention you in the newsletter and possibly start a disparaging rumor about you, now we wouldn't want that now would we. ☺

Till then I hope you all have fun and get some waves – its autumn and that means perfect longboarding waves.

The Super 8's Scribe Dean ☺

We look forward to meeting new members, you guys and gals are always welcome to have a surf with us, so we'll see you on Sunday, just come over and say hello.
