July 2010

Next Club Round: This Sunday the 18th of July 2010 for the 1st club round of the new year. Yes I know this is after the presentation night but won't that make everyone equally as bad, the morning after the night before. We will meet back at the Greenmount carpark opposite MacDonalds like always

NEWS FROM LAST ROUND by Mat Marshall:

Well our last club round was blessed by our "beloved surf god", HUEY, with some solid 3-4 foot glassy walls, occasionally barrelling walls, as Deano was quick to illustrate,.....its such a pity that only a select few witnessed this wave, with a semi nose ride under a perfect feathering lip, simultaneously breaking the sound barrier straight across the bank at Nth Kirra.

Meanwhile the judges, (not too sure who was judging this heat???????) were either marvelling at the unofficial elaborate sand castle competition under way at their feet, by none other than "Wals Fan Club" (his daughters), but i am pretty sure all judges used the trusty old chest nut of an excuse,...."oh what colour was that?.....did who get a barrel, couldn't quite see for the rising sun over the water.....oh we will give him a 4....".

Ha Ha Ha, Sound Familiar Deano, or to any Super 8, post heat in great waves. Clearly i wasn't judging Deano, as i am still stoked thinking of that wave, i watched the whole wave, staggering back from yet another unwanted and untimely trip to the men's room, thanks for taking my mind off that whole unpleasant episode, and thanks to Spider, Wal and Jacko for rescheduling my heat.

Matty A, was once again ripping, maybe not by his standards in earlier heats, but enough to leave us all in his wake yet again, Spider was still looking smooth and choosing some great waves, Cocky flew under the radar in my heat, I thought I was home and hosed with a couple of great sets, but was un aware of his aloof prowess further down the beach, evidently no glare from the rising sun on the water down the beach hey Judges!!!!!!.....just kidding.

It was great to see none other than the Burger Bros battling it out for the last of their club points tally, which from all accounts going into this final round were almost a dead even. I think Andrew has completely redefined "Warm Blooded" as he refuses to wear a wetsuit even this far into winter, possibly even giving new meaning to "NUMB NUTS".....

There still seem to be many absentees, Sally if you are still out there, YES i have your new legrope in my car at all times, Great to see Wal still making everyone laugh, and maintaining his sense of humour, even though he has not actually been surfing due to his sinus complications, well done Wal for your support in Super 8' and Tweed Coast Old Mal Club, hope you are back in the water soon, if not already.

It was another successful club round with great waves, great weather and great company, and all present on the day, or nearly all, stayed on for the informal club discussion/meeting regarding next seasons positions within the club and most importantly for now THE END OF YEAR PRESENTATION/PARTY.....

Looking forward to seeing you all there at the Burgers Residence, and huge thank-you to Andrew and Trea for volunteering their beautiful house to celebrate at, P.S. Hope you all have RSVP'd.

(thanks Mat)

OTHER NEWS:

Thank you to all who stuck there hand up to help the club this year
Jacko will again be President
Gary will be Treasurer

Dean and Maty M will help each other get a newsletter out, hopefully
Wal and Maty M will share the load of the Trailer
Trea and Andrew will look after the Food and Drink

Matty A and Nick have been looking into a little bit of advertising i.e. signs, banners and surfshops etc

And countless others have stuck their hand up to help form a decision making committee, so really with this much enthusiasm the club is looking quite positive again.

Can everyone please fill out a new club registration form this Sunday as it is a new year and our records need updating. Also it has been mentioned that a number of people want the newsletter to arrive by the postie, so to do this we need your address and some one organized enough to get it out on time. Secondly, we would like to put together a phone list of all members so everyone can get in touch with one another so if they can not help with the trailer (for example) they would be able to let some one know and that person would e able to get the trailer.

Thank you all those people that turned up to discuss the Presentation Night, with a clear picture of what needed to be done it looks as though it is going to be a fantastic night

Next on the Social Calendar.
A trip to the Tabulam Races!

Gary Gleave did a little sniffing around for everyone so I have attached the information he has found. Stay Tuned!!!

Up coming Comps:

July
